

As a citizen of Wisconsin, our no-call law has been a wonderful protection against all of the unwanted and unsolicited calls, usually during the dinner hour and evening but throughout the day as well. These calls are a real invasion of our privacy. Please do not succumb to the pressure of special interest groups and dilute what our law is doing. Your true responsibility should be to protect we the people, not those with other motives.